

ARTICLE APPEARED
ON PAGE 2

HUMAN EVENTS
25 May 1985

Capital Briefs

5 ★ The Washington Post has done it again. In a front-page story last week, co-authored by Water-gate reporter Bob Woodward, the Post alleged that the CIA had set up an anti-terrorism program in Lebanon, and had an "indirect connection" to a car bombing last year in Beirut directed against an anti-American terrorist leader. Critics, including the CIA, challenged the substance of the story and said it would endanger American lives.